Dear Mr Wright

Further to my letter to you dated 5 March 2009 concerning Gunner George Steatham, 31805, Royal Field Artillery, who is commemorated in Darlaston (James Bridge) Cemetery in the West Midlands.

I am pleased to advise you that the new headstone, bearing the correct spelling of the surname along with his age, has now been erected on the grave. I enclose a photograph of the finished headstone which I trust you will find satisfactory.

Yours sincerely,
